“The Ohio 14th Infantry regiment, a key unit in the Civil War, was Northwest Ohio's first regiment raised for the war, and Ohio's first to see action, fighting in the Western Theater and participating in battles like Philippi, Lexington, Chickamauga, and those around Atlanta. “ (Wikipedia 2025)

The Ohio 14th Infantry Regiment was organized at Toledo, Ohio, on April 25, 1861, under Union Colonel (later Brig General) James Steedman.

Steedman is in the Pearce-Pierce book from his marriage to Sarah 'Miranda' STILES of Caldwell NJ. Miranda's sister Malvina Stiles had married Elijah Dodd, father of Caleb Dodd who is this chapter. That makes Caleb a nephew to Steedman.

The regiment moved to Cleveland, Ohio, 4/25/1861, then to Columbus, Ohio, 5/22/1861.
