BIOGRAPHICAL AND GENEALOGICAL HISTORY.

Albert Duryea and Mary Pierce

History of Morris County NJ. Volume 2. 1899

Albert Zabriskie Duryea, whose name begins this record, was born March 26, 1837, on the farm where he now carries on agricultural pursuits. In the district schools near his home he acquired his education and then entered upon his business career by learning the carpenter's trade in Newark and in New York city. He followed that pursuit for some years, but is now devoting his energies to the farm, which he has placed under a good state of cultivation. The fields are well tilled, everything in good repair, and the neat and thrifty appearance of the place indicates the careful supervision of the owner.

Mr. Duryea's home is presided over by one of the estimable ladies of the township, who in her maidenhood was Miss Mary Matilda Pierce, daughter of Henry G. and Emeline (Hicks) Pierce, of Newark. Their marriage was celebrated May 2, 1860, and four children graced their union, namely:

Anna Maria, born November 11, 1863, now the wife of Charles L. Van Duyne, of Union Hill, Hudson county, New Jersey, by whom she has three children—Ernest, Mary Matilda and Grace; William A., who was born July 29, 1865, and married Elizabeth Seaman, by whom he has two children—Elsie May and Richard Halsey; Edward E., born May 25, 1870, now at home; and Raymond P., who was born December 18, 1875, and makes his home in Newark.

In his political associations Mr. Duryea is a Democrat, and for thirteen years served as county committeemen, proving a most capable and trustworthy officer. He has also been school trustee for many years and has greatly advanced the cause of education by his earnest, untiring efforts. The family attend the Dutch Reformed church and are well known in this community.

Sorted by death date: Some children will have their own chapter.

1848: 2nd child. Tragedy visited Henry and Emily PEARCE when their daughter Emeline PEARCE died 8/26/1848 age 7 from dysentery. She was named after her mom. The daughter was born 11/12/1840.

The 2024 realtor pages say the tan building 86 Pacific was built 1900. The 1900 head of household Henry George Pearce died on 9/6/1900.

Maybe the 2024 realtor is wrong? If this Henry died late in 1900, how could the house be built in 1900? Maybe the sale year is 1900 after Henry died.

Henry and Emily PEARCE are on the George PEARCE branch #5, generation #3.
