Vet Marries Miss Brower

Ceremony Held
In St. Michael's

Walter J. Bolembach, an Army veteran and son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bolembach of 138 Van Pelt avenue, Mariners Harbor, yesterday afternoon, took as his bride in St. Michael's Church, Mariners Harbor, Miss Dorothy Helen Brower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Brower of 1665 Castleton avenue, Port Richmond.

The ceremony, performed by the Rev. William Guido, was followed by a reception in Clove Lakes Park Restaurant, Sunnyside. The couple has left on a wedding trip to Atlantic City.

Gowned in white satin and marquisette, the bride wore a veil of bridal illusion falling from a seed pearl tiara, and carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias and sweet peas.

Miss Gladys Brower, her sister's honor attendant, wore a blue lace and marquisette gown with a head-dress to match and carried pink and blue sweet peas.

Frank Bolembach was best man for his brother.

The bride is an alumna of Port Richmond High School. Her husband, a former McKee Vocational and Technical High School student, is employed in the Mariners Harbor shipyard of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom, who served three years in the Army, saw 20 months' duty in Europe.
