Ramona Boyce

December 25, 2013 -

This is Lance F. Logan. He served in the USAF from 1964-1968 at Malmstrom AFB in Great Falls, Montana. He served as a Corpman in the maternity ward, known as the Happiest Place on Earth, where he helped deliver just under 700 babies into the world. This was during the beginning of the Vietnam War conflict. Lance tried many times to deploy to the war to stand and fight next to his military brothers, but was never sent. He never realized at the time that they would not take the only son from a family. They didn't want to stop the family's lineage. Thank you for serving. I love you ❤️

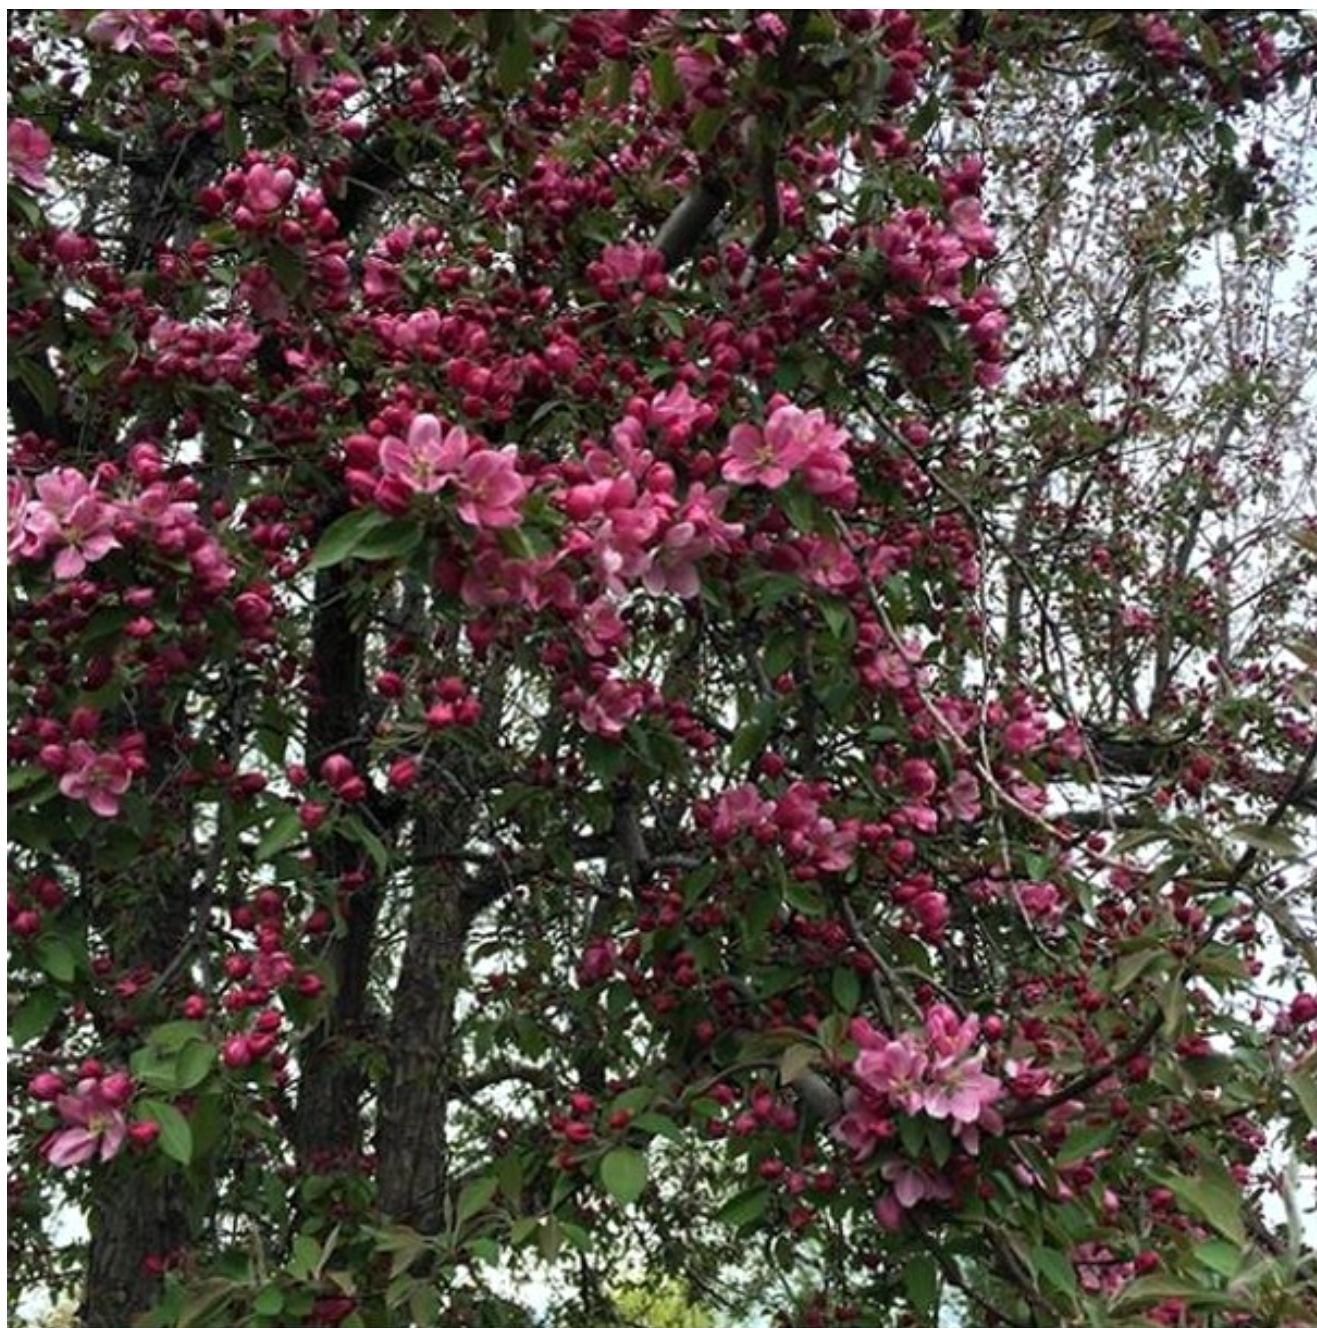

Son of Lance Logan and Jean
Margie Loderstedt of NJ.
